SUBJECT:—

In re the complaint of Varadachar, Archak of Lal Doss Sri Venkataramanaswami temple in Bangalore City regarding the mismanagement of the endowment of the temple.

LAST REFERENCE.

Letter No. 383 dated 2nd September 1904

~~November 1904~~ from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District.

The Lal Doss Sri Venkataramanaswami temple in Bangalore City is a Muzrai Institution endowed with the marginally noted cash and land incomes.

In his petition No 1948 dated 25th May 1903, Varadachar, Archak of the temple represented that the late Samodara Doss Sait spent large sum of money towards improving the temple and conducting services therein, and that house No 491 with its shops etc which belonged to the Sait had been given to the temple in view to the rent realized there on being utilized for services in the temple. He further stated that the affairs of the Institution were being mismanaged by the late Bhavan Sahuji, Gymnast of Daudodara Doss. He stated that one Veeralhadappa had applied for license to erect a building on the site, (the house referred to by the Petitioner as belonging to the temple having fallen down) and requested that as it belonged to the temple, permission should not be granted. Thereupon, the Deputy Commissioner was requested to report upon the allegation of the Petitioner and he was informed that pending final orders of Government, the Municipal authorities should be asked not to issue any license. The Deputy Commissioner has now submitted the report with Dr. Palpur's (the Vice President) Memo and states "It is evident that the site in dispute was the private property of Daudodara Doss Sait and that the temple has no sort of right over it". But, from the records it is observed that the late Daudodara Doss Sait was the original owner of the house in question which was purchased by him in 1833. From the copy of the deposition of Gokul das (गोकुलदास) before the Taluk Amildar given on the 9th September 1881, it is observed that Bhawan Sahuji was misappropriating the temple endowments, especially the rent derived from the house in question and that therefore one Narasimhanja was appointed trustee of the charities. In the deposition it is stated that the house which had been gifted to the temple in view to the rent thereof being used for temple purposes, was being used by the Sahuji as his residence. And, in the judgment in appeal nos 90 of 1899-00, in the Chief Court of Mysore it is observed that "the house belonged to Damodara Das Sait and that Sahuji was permitted to live therein as his agent."

2. One Veerabhadraappa applied for license to build a house on certain vacant by him from the legal representatives of Damodaras Set, the original owner of the same. But archak Varadachari objected to the grant of any license, alleging that the site in question belonged to Laladas Venkataswami Swami temple, a mungnai institution. The Amildar after enquiry reports that Damodara das Set purchased the house in 1833, but there is no documentary evidence of any kind to prove that the site in question

Memo

Basappa Sahujee, his wife Laksam Bayee and Varadachar submitted petitions bringing to notice that one Gowder Veerabhadraiah intends applying for a license to build on house site No 191 in Taluk Entcherry Road and requesting that his application may be rejected as he has no right to the site. Laksam Bayee, one of the three Yakrardas above referred to, applied for a license to build a house on the same site. Veerabhadraiah's application for license was subsequently received. Basappa Sahujee has since withdrawn his protest against Veerabhadraiah's claim. The other Yakrardas were served with notices to produce documents to prove their right to

to the site. Meanwhile, Takras petition from Esvara Sahujee and Krishna Sashi against Veerabhadraha being permitted to build were also received. These were also given notice to appear with documents to substantiate their Takras.

Mr V. N. Narasimmmuzar, Advocate appeared on behalf of Veerabhadraha and Mr Gangadariah, Pleader, on behalf of Lakshmi Baye. The other parties were present in person. The advocates argued their cases at great length and other parties were heard. The documents produced were seen and the following conclusions were arrived at.

- (1) With regard to the Takras of Basappa Sahujee, son of Bappa Sahujee, Agent of Damodar Das Sait (deceased) owner of the above house, he has with drawing his Fakrar.

(2) Lakshmi Bai, wife of the above Basappa Shahji stated that her father in law Bavan Sahji as the Agent of the Damodar das Sahi, owner of the site was in possession of the house and that she was living in the house before its demolition by the Plaque Department. She has ^{no} documents to show that the house belongs to her and her husband.

Basappa Sahji has withdrawn his protest against Keshabhadra, being permitted to build thereon. Vide para 1. Besides, it has been decided by the Sub. Judge and Chief Jant that her father in law Bavan Sahji through whom she bases her claim, was not the owner and that his heirs had no right to dispose of the property belonging to the late late Damodardas Sait. Consequently, his Takrar and his application for license could not be accepted.

(3) Varada Acharya Archak of Laldar

Venkataramaswami temple stated that the house belongs to the temple and that the owner Damodardas Sait was paying whole or part of the realization from this property for the expenses thereof. No documents were produced to show that the property was made over to the temple. The mere fact that part or whole of the rent realized from the buildings was being paid toward the temple expenses could not be considered sufficient to establish the claim set forth by him. His Takrar therefore has to be rejected.

(4) The Takrar of Eswarasahayee cannot be admitted as the house in question has has been hypothesized to him by Basappa Sahuje who has no right to it.

Vide paras 1 and 2. Besides Basappa Sahuje has himself withdrawn his takras

(5) Krishna Sastri stated that $\frac{1}{4}$ th part of the house with possession has been mortgaged to him by Bavan Sahuje. But this Bavan Sahuje was only an agent and as per Chief Court decision, had no right over the property.

(6) Veerabhadra, the 2nd applicant for license produces registered documents executed by the representatives of the owner, the late Damodar Das Sait. and he is also in possession of the original sale deed (~~See page~~) executed in favor of Damodar Das Sait and also produces orders of the Chief Court to prove that the house belongs to late Damodar Das Sait.
Consequently.

Consequently Veerabhadraappa may be permitted to build and granted a license on condition that the license given to him does not prejudice the if any.

4 The site is in the main Street (Chikabete) and it is at present used as a latrine by the public. Under Section 151 of Municipal Regulation, if the President fails to signify his approval or otherwise of the plan within one month after the application for license is made, the parties may proceed with the work without President's permission.

Orders are therefore solicited as to whether license may be granted as above to Veerabhadraappa or delayed pending orders of the Deputy Commissioner in the Muzrai Department who has directed on on Mahazar presented by Mr Gangadariah Pleads on behalf of the temple on the 21st May 1903 that the issue of license should be kept in abeyance pending orders from his Court.

Sir,

I am directed to on the petition of Achak Varadachar of the Tal Das Venkatarmanaswami Temple in the Bangalore city, complaining of the alleged mismanagement of the Temple by one Basappa -

The chief point ^{of} ~~of~~ ^{relates to} complaint appears to ~~be~~ the ownership of the ^{site} ~~the~~ ^{no} 1491 situated in the Guluk Cemetery Road. The site in question is claimed by one Venubhadraappa, who alleges to have purchased the house standing thereon in 1896, from Maha Lakshmi Bai and Venkta Rao, both residing at Madras, but it is contended by the petitioner Venadachar, who is the Acharya of the Sri Lal Das Venkateswara Temple, that the house and a few shops attached thereto, as ~~there~~ well as some of the rooms constructed within the temple premises, all of which ^{had} belonged to Damodar Das Sait, were set apart by by him for the use of the temple and as such, the said Venu-bhadrappa had no right to the site under dispute. The sale deed executed by Venkat Rao and Anubhukshinbaji in favour of Venubhadrappa has not been produced. This should be obtained and forwarded.

3. Gopala Das, son-in-law of the late Demodara Das said, in his written statement of the 9th September 1881 alleged that, as the sale surviving him of the late Demodara Das said, ^{he} had given a Power of Attorney to one Narasimhappa, entrusting to him the management of the temple and its endowments, together with the house in question, with the express condition of maintaining the institution ~~house~~ in good order, out of the income derived from the endowments. In the statement he ~~even proposed to~~ expressed his desire to hand over the management to Government.

A copy of the Power of Attorney, if available, should also be obtained and forwarded -

4. The examination of the temple accounts maintained by Peshwar Sahuji ^{during the period} ~~when he was~~ in charge of the temple ~~and~~ its endowments, ^{as the Agent of Devadurga &} as well as those maintained by Narasimhappa during his Agency ^{on behalf of Govinda Das,} should also be ~~obtained~~ obtained and forwarded, after ^{being} duly checked by the Dy. Commr. to see if the rents payable on the house and the shops were ~~actually~~ ^{actually} being utilized towards the benefit of the temple, as alleged by the Archak Varadachari

5. It is also a point for investigation, if, as alleged by the petitioner, the rents were being utilized for the maintenance of the temple, and if ~~he~~ ^{he} ~~was~~ ^{was} quite sure that the house he had been set apart by Damodara Das ~~for the temple~~ ^{for the temple}, when no ~~steps~~ ^{steps} were taken by him to report to the Auditor, as the local Magistrate Officer, at the time when the plague authorities demolished the house and thereby ^{caused} the income of the temple to ~~be~~ ^{be} ~~suppressed~~ ^{suppressed} - for its exclusive use

6. One Krishna Das, a descendant of the late Damodara Das said is even now said to have been remitting a sum of Rs 20 a month to meet the charges of the temple establishment, and his ^{present} local Agent - what he has to say in regard to the dispute, should also be enquired into, and reported when the ~~fact~~ ^{fact} ~~is~~ ^{is} ~~known~~ ^{known} ~~to~~ ^{to} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~authorities~~ ^{authorities} ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~Government~~ ^{Government} -
